LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I enthusiastically vouch for Pranam Jain and recommend him for consideration in your Master's program. He was under my guidance as a student in the Network Management program during his Bachelor's studies at University Institute Of Technology, RGPV.

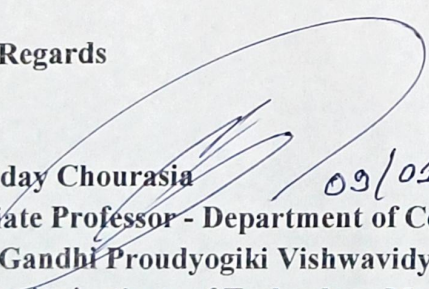

Pranam Jain has consistently shown exceptional dedication and understanding of Network Management concepts. In my classes, he not only grabbed the theoretical aspects but also demonstrated practical application skills. His problem-solving abilities and analytical skills were impressive, reflecting a solid grasp of Network Management complexities.

Apart from academic excellence, he actively participated in class discussions, collaborated well with peers, and showed a genuine interest in staying updated with the latest developments in the field. He possesses excellent communication skills, making complex technical information easy to understand.

I am confident that Pranam Jain will thrive in the Master's program, bringing a commitment to excellence and a strong foundation. His proactive approach to learning and clear passion for Computer Science make him an ideal candidate for advanced studies in any field. I recommend him for admission into your institution.

Thank you for taking my recommendation into account.

Kind Regards
